

Carol Brian: After graduating from Wright State University in Dayton, OH and serving an Internship at The Juilliard School, life has never been boring. Mrs. Brian has been busy Stage Managing from as far north as New Hampshire and as far south as Florida, from Boston to Kansas City. Most recently she finished up her 7th year as Production Stage Manager at Opera Tampa. She will be enjoying her 7th season with Opera in the Ozarks this summer. Mrs. Brian has done shows of all sizes including Disney World, Norwegian Cruise Line and national tour shows and has worked at all 4 Tennessee opera companies. She lives outside of Nashville, TN with her husband, Gene and Jeremy, an Alaskan Malamute.