Successful candidates will have experience in clothing construction including machine and hand sewing; know how to apply interfacings, zippers, buttonholes, etc.; understand commercial patterns and be able to follow verbal instructions; be comfortable working backstage and under pressure; and have a cheerful attitude and a desire to learn continually. Familiarity with period clothing is a plus. Extended hours will be required during build period, including nights and weekends. Duties will include but are not limited to:

- Participating in all daily tasks in the costume shop
- Participating in the execution of costume fitting, construction, modifications and alterations
- Participating in crafts as needed
- Supervising and mentoring a crew of artists and volunteer workers
- Will work well under pressure and maintain a positive team spirit
- Attending dress rehearsals as a backstage crew
- Assisting in pulling from stock, reorganization, and restocking of costume storage and work areas
- Acting as a wardrobe crew during the complete run of the performance
- Maintaining costumes, accessories, and wigs during complete run of the performances
- The successful applicant will be a creative, reliable, talented problem solver

The successful candidates will be hired as an independent contractor and no taxes will be withheld. Compensation includes $3000, a shared air-conditioned room and meals seven days/week for the period of the contract May 21-July 22, 2022.

All artists and staff will be required to demonstrate that they are fully vaccinated for Covid 19, including CDC-recommended boosters by May 1, 2022.

Review of applications will begin January 5 and continues until the position is filled.
